

UC Davis Post-Baccalaureate in Classics

Instructions for Letter-Writers

Thank you for agreeing to write a letter of recommendation for the UC Davis Post-Baccalaureate in Classics Certificate Program.

In your letter, we would appreciate your frank and honest evaluation of the applicant in these areas:

1. Language ability in ancient Greek or Latin. If you are not familiar with the candidate's abilities in this area, please comment to the extent possible on the applicant's language ability in any language that is not the applicant's native language.
2. Knowledge of the literatures, cultures, and/or history of Greek and Roman antiquity.
3. Academic writing ability.
4. Potential as a teaching assistant or grader for undergraduate Classics courses.
5. Ability to function well individually and interpersonally in a group professional or classroom setting.

Letters may be sent by email to: Nancy K. Masson, nkmasson@ucdavis.edu, with the subject heading "Letter of Recommendation for Post-Bac Program."

For Fall Quarter admission, the deadline for application materials is May 1.

For Winter Quarter admission, the deadline for application materials is December 1.

For Spring Quarter admission, the deadline for application materials is March 1.

Thank you again for your help in our admissions process.
